PAWNED BEFORE PURCHASE. Conductor Paid Only One Installment

on Watch He Disposed Of. "I needed the money," was the excuse offered in the Police Court today by James H. Talbert, a street car conductor, charged with violating section 833 of the District code, in disposing of a watch purchased on the installment plan before he had completed the payments on it. The testimony showed that Talbert purchased the watch April 12 of a local jewelry firm, agreeing to pay a certain sum weekly until the full price of $40 was paid. The day after the purchase, the testimony showed, Talbert pawned the watch; and two days later, it was shown, he sold the pawnticket and obtained more money. "Why did you pawn the watch?" he was asked by Prosecuting Attorney Ra!ph "Because I was being pushed for my

"Why did you sell the pawn ticket?" asked Mr. Given. "Because I needed more money," stated Judge Mills ordered Talbert to settle with

"STICKY WEATHER."

Comments Upon the Temperature From Official Forecaster.

"Sticky weather," was the way Prof. described today's conditions. He added that the light showers that have been appearing spasmodically hereabouts will vanish tomorrow morning, and the atmosphere will become more dry, but not any cooler. reported from the eastern states today. The downtown temperature, as recorded at Affleck's, played a sort of going up and down game on the big thermometer today. At 8 o'clock this morning the reading was 81 degrees; at 9 o'clock, 84; at 10 o'clock, 86; at 11 o'clock it reached the highest ! point-90 degrees-and then receded one degree. The reading at 1 o'clock this afterfrom the west. At the same hour the official standard thermometer at the weather bureau registered 85 degrees.
